THE FIVE VOWELS.

At school the master warned me that I never should forget
That there are just five vowels in The English alphabet.
He said: "You must remember them.
You'll find it useful, too."
And then he told the vowels five
Were A, E, I, O, U.
Since I've grown up I've found that I
Can flourish and can thrive
With fewer than he told me of.
The fact is, there are quite enough.
So I've discarded A and E
And stick to I, O, U.

Dick Lester and his friend, Fred Payne, are residents of Grave alley. Yesterday Dick was killing and manipulating his trusty revolver, preparatory possibly to a Saturday night fandango and jamboree, when the pesky thing went off without Dick's knowledge and consent and plowed its way through the flesh of Fred's left shoulder, inflicting a slight wound. Both men reported to Chief Ort and explained that it was an accident and were let go. A corn dog, razor and revolver are indispensable adjuncts in the make-up of nine tenths of our colored population, and it's no wonder there is something doing at times.

He was resuscitated after a lapse of some ten or fifteen minutes. The fire at the mill was

The Stocking Question

Everybody wants stockings—dozens of people are buying them in Maysville today. Some of them may not know about Hunt hosiery. They may be getting perfect satisfaction but are paying too much for it. Others are putting up with inferior stockings because they think they will have to pay more for better ones. Try a pair of our stockings at the price you usually pay and be convinced that quality-for-price finds its best expression here.

Beautiful Waists

There is a subtle charm, an alluring prettiness about these mention bargain in connection with such loveliness. You can not make a mistake in selecting from either lot.

WHILE "construing" the brick street specifications, I wish some one would please tell me what this "sockdolager" is driving at. It will be found near the top of page 10 of the printed book, and it is printed just as it was submitted by the draftsman and adopted by the Council—

"The whole operation of mixing and laying each batch of concrete shall be performed in a prompt and skillful manner and must be entirely completed before the cement has begun to set will be rejected."

THE Committee on Appropriations of Congress at its last session appropriated for the fiscal year 1907 nearly a billion dollars.

The exact amount is $879,589,155.16, representing an increase of $59,404,550.20 over the sum appropriated at the last session of the Fifty-eighth Congress for 1906.

The largest item is contained in the appropriation for the Postoffice Department, the amount allotted being $191,695,998.75.

The next largest sum was given for pensions, the money appropriated amounting to $140,245,500, or nearly twice as much as was allowed for the support of the army and over $40,000,000 more than was granted for the naval establishment.

Of the net increase of $59,404,550.20 over 1906, it is said $42,447,201.08 was for the Isthmian Canal, the remainder being accounted for through the appropriations for the carrying out of the meat inspection law, the continuance of contracts for river and harbor work, the reorganization of the Diplomatic and Consular Service and the extension of the rural free delivery service.

It would be so much nicer if everybody would "pull together" instead of pulling against each other; and then the newspaper would always have pleasant things to say instead of being forced to make criticism, in discharging the duty the Editor owes to the public.

I HAVE never yet seen a set of "specifications" that didn't specify too much—in very many cases demanding the impossible. On general principles, they are proper and right; but I've seen more than one building that would have been ruined if they had been followed to the letter. People who undertake to build houses are supposed to divide honors with the Architects, when it comes to a matter of common sense.

CIRCUIT JUDGE T. F. BIRKHEAD has written an opinion in the case of CAL. P. KEOWN against W. S. TINKLEY, Clerk of the Ohio County Court, and T. N. JOHNSON, declaring unconstitutional the Legislative Redistricting Bill passed at the recent session of the Legislature.

The decision deals primarily with the Twenty-sixth Legislative District, composed of the counties of Ohio, Butler and Edmonson, but affects the entire state.

Judge BIRKHEAD holds that the Act of the Legislature in putting Butler, Ohio and Edmonson counties in one District is in violation of Section 33 of the Constitution, of which the policy is that every citizen in the state shall have an equal voice in the making of the laws. With more than 50,000 in the Twenty-sixth District and only 7,000 in the Hancock District, one citizen of Hancock county would have as much power in the Legislature as six or seven citizens of Butler, Ohio and Edmonson counties. This the Judge holds to be an invasion of the rights of the citizen.

Judge BIRKHEAD also holds that the Courts have a right to revise the Acts of the Legislature. The case will be appealed, and it is probable that the power of the Courts will be the question on which it will hinge before the Court of Appeals.

Mrs. Emma Swartz, who was called here last week by the serious illness of her sister, Mrs. Charles Kelley, returned to her home at Sardis Thursday.

Mr. Clarence Phillips of Orangeburg and Miss Edith Beckett, one of our most estimable young ladies, were married Wednesday, August 15th, at Flemingsburg. Our best wishes attend them.

Mrs. Lottie Turner has returned home, after an extended visit to her daughter, Mrs. C. P. Cook, of Paris. Mrs. Cook and daughter, Virginia Norwood, accompanied her home and will spend several weeks here.

Mr. George Watts has bought the residence of Mr. Sinclair Gardiner, Mr. Gardiner having bought the property of Mr. Claud Price. Mr. Price has also sold his 'bus line to Maysville to J. L. Foxworthy, and will leave here next week, but does not know as yet where he will locate.

Mrs. Sadie Kelley, nee Powell, died Tuesday, August 21st, after a severe illness of two weeks duration. She leaves a husband and three small children to mourn for her, "whom they have loved and lost awhile." Her life was as the passing of a fragrant breath, soon past, but leaving a memory most sweet—the memory of a beautiful Christian life and triumphant death.

MILLCREEK.

Mrs. W. B. Bakemore and daughter, Elizabeth, will visit friends at Millcreek during the protracted meeting.

The protracted meeting is progressing nicely. Rev. Cooke is quite an able speaker. Let every one come out and hear him.

Quite a crowd attended each day the convention at Millcreek. About seventy-five delegates were registered, and crowds came from neighboring Churches.

Suffer no longer; use Doan's Ointment. It gives relief in five or ten minutes. It cures in a short time—cures you to stay cured

Maysville people endorse it

Mrs. S. F. Tolle, of 117 Short street, Maysville, Ky., says:

"Before I used Doan's Ointment, in March 1900, I had suffered for a long while with itching hemorrhoids. I had tried persistently to rid myself of the trouble but without success, and anybody who has known the tortures of this complaint will understand what I suffered. Doan's Ointment, procured at J. J. Wood & Son's Drugstore, cured me, as stated in a testimonial given at that time, and during the five years past I have had no return of the trouble. It required only one box to bring this gratifying result. I have used Doan's Ointment for other purposes, and find that it is a specific for skin troubles and all itching diseases."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.
